FIRST MESSAGE OF GOV. ODDIE TO THE PEOPLE

Nevada's Newly Elected Chief Executive Extends Thanks to the People of This State For His Success.

I take this opportunity of thanking the good people of Tonopah, and also of the state of Nevada, for the splendid tribute they paid me yesterday at the general election. I appreciate this from the bottom of my heart, and will always cherish the warmest feeling for you all.

We have fought many hard battles shoulder to shoulder, and I will always feel that I belong among you in Tonopah, even though my official position demands my living in Carson City. I want to assure you all that I feel the great responsibility that the people of this state have placed on my shoulders and will carry it with the knowledge that my home people are with me in sympathy. I will use what energy and ability I possess in an earnest effort to build up this great state of ours and to give the people a clean, progressive, business-like administration. My ambition will be to take the lead in starting a new era in our state, which I believe is about to dawn.

May God bless you all.

BLAIR GIVES

GOVERNOR ODDIE

A GOOD MAJORITY

Blair gave Oddie a good send-off when he received 63 votes to 29 cast for Dickerson.

This is the result of the visit paid to that camp Sunday when Mr. Oddie personally met every resident of that camp and explained his position to them. At that time it was impossible to find a Dickerson man and it is presumed they were all in hiding.
